2003 ASSEMBLY BILL 831

2003 Assembly Bill 831 changes the penalty for persons who violate operating restrictions under a probationary license or an instruction permit. Under the bill, a person holding a probationary license or instruction permit who violates these operating restrictions must forfeit $50 for a first offense and not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each subsequent offense. In addition, the Department of Transportation (DOT) must provide notice of the conviction to any adult sponsor of the person. DOT may not assess demerit points for a restriction violation.

ASSEMBLY AMENDMENT 1

Assembly Amendment 1:

1. Deletes the provision in the bill indicating that DOT may not assess demerit points for a restriction violation.
2. Creates a delayed effective date for the bill, specifying that if the bill is enacted into law, the new law takes effect on the 4th month beginning after publication of the new law.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On February 18, 2004, the Assembly Committee on Highway Safety voted to recommend passage of the bill, as amended by Assembly Amendment 1 (which was adopted on a vote of Ayes, 7; Noes, 0), on a vote of Ayes, 7; Noes, 0.
